

Some Interesting Ohio

Jack and
Susan Smith

Jack and Susan Smith have had a major impact on Ohio YM during the past 35 years. Jack, recognized as a minister in 1997, has emphasized retention of traditional Quaker spirituality and has undertaken travels in ministry to England to visit affiliate members. Susan, an Elder, served as YM Clerk from 1988 to 2001 and as Clerk of the YM for M&O since 2004. Rockingham Meeting is held in a room attached to their home.

Friends at Chesterfield on 7/21/1996. Front row: Dick Wetzel, Bette Barrett, and Jim Geyer. Back row: David Eley, MaryAlice Pino, Jim Creighton.

David Eley was not a member of Friends at the time; he later joined Keystone Fellowship MM and has been recognized as a minister.

Arthur Berk
New Foundation worker and advocate of the Gospel

Myrtle Bailey
Winona Minister
Rep. Meeting Clerk and M&O Clerk

Dorothy & Carl Smith
Dorothy served as Rep. Meeting Clerk 1997–2008 and YM Treasurer since

Historic Atlas of Ohio Yearly Meeting, Page 88

Friends of 1975 to 2000

Richard & Beulah Hall with daughter Marjorie.

Richard Hall was a minister at Ridge and Stillwater and was a spiritual leader of the YM throughout the last four decades.

Becky Hawkins, Alice Heald, and Nancy Hawkins
Becky has gone on several medical mission trips to Latin America to assist low income people. Nancy is a minister at Middleton who has travelled extensively in the United States and Canada to share the gospel.

Cliff and Dorothy Guindon have given generously of their lives to Ohio YM and Olney

Teddy and Myron Johnson Teddy has been active with the Historical Committee for years

Elvina Krekler and Debbie Ferbrache Elvina has been a tireless worker for the Lord through Ohio YM for decades

Randy and Martha Giffen Randy Giffen was a gifted Elder, and Martha a Minister at Stillwater. Both were active in peace and social concerns in Ohio YM.

Marilyn Neyer and her husband John Brady were active members at Stillwater in the 1990s. John wrote a short history of Conservative Friends.

Everett Hartley was an Elder at Middleton. He related many old family stories about earlier generations of our members.

Historic Atlas of Ohio Yearly Meeting, Page 89